Good morning IS 201! It's Zain from 731 and I'm here this Talk A lot Tuesday on behalf of the S.E.A.L Team.

John Brown's birthday is today. You may be wondering who John Brown is. Well, John Brown was an American abolitionist who campaigned against slavery in the United States. He was born in Connecticut in 1800 and fought in "Bleeding Kansas," an action that resulted in heavy deaths and determined whether Kansas was a slave state or not. Sadly, he was executed in 1859. But his story lives on. He advocated against prejudice and fought for equality. Let's take this as a lesson to treat people equally and stop belittling them for their differences. As someone once stated, "Respect for the uniqueness of the individual is the foundation of a free and just society."

Thanks for listening have a Treat Everyone with Respect Tuesday 😊
