

March 27, 2025

Good morning IS201! It's Celine, from 814, and I'm here this Thoughtful Thursday on behalf of the SEAL team.

Today is March 27th, also National Scribble Day! This day celebrates creativity, self-expression, and the idea that even the simplest scribbles can turn into something amazing. Today serves as a reminder to unleash our creativity and embrace the simple act of scribbling. Every great idea starts somewhere, even if it seems messy or uncertain at first. Learning is just like scribbling. Sometimes, things don't turn out perfect right away, but with practice, effort, and an open mind, those rough ideas can transform into something incredible. Mistakes are what lead to us growing as a person overall so don't be afraid of messing up. Every small step you take, even if it feels like a scribble, is part of the bigger picture of learning and growth.

You should embrace creativity, take chances, and remember that every masterpiece starts with just a simple mark on the page.

That's it for today, thank you for listening and have a Twiddle Your Pencil Thursday 😊
