

December 1, 2022

Good morning! It's Irene Qiu from 731 and I'm here this Thoughtful Thursday on behalf of the S.E.A.L Team.

You've probably heard of Rosa Parks in one way or another. But did you know that today is Rosa Parks Day?

Rosa Parks, commonly referred to as "the mother of the civil rights movement," sparked the fight for racial equality when she refused to give up her bus seat to a white man. As a result, on this first day of December, we as a country pay tribute to her bravery because she personified the dignity and fortitude of those who fought to abolish racial segregation.

We are, in the words of Rosa Park, "here on the planet Earth to live, grow up, and do what we can to make this world a better place for all people to enjoy freedom," she once said. Simply said, we must respect one another's differences and live together in harmony.

Thanks for listening have a Treat Everyone with Respect Thursday 😊
