

February 9, 2023

Good morning! It's Irene Qiu from 731 and I'm here this Thoughtful Thursday on behalf of the S.E.A.L Team.

Did you know today is Giving Hearts Day? Giving Hearts Day is observed annually on the second Thursday of February, which falls on February 9 this year. Giving Hearts Day is a chance to give as much as you can to charitable causes and those in need. It is a wonderful approach to be compassionate and support those who need help.

Being charitable is a selfless act. Charity represents love, compassion, and humanity. Charity allows us as a society to work together to help the less fortunate and make the world a better place for everyone. Winston Churchill said it best: "We make a living by what we get," and "What we give makes a life."

Thanks for listening have a Tender Loving Care Thursday 😊
